

Monthly Character Traits

October: Gratitude: The action of being thankful; appreciation of the favor of someone or something.

November: Leadership: The action of leading a group of people or an organization.

December: Compassion: Understanding of the suffering of another.

January: Responsibility: A form of trustworthiness; the trait of being answerable to someone for something or other.